1. In response to a request of the Ministry of National Defense for jet-propelled fighters and bombers, the USSR, by letter dated 14 July 1950 and addressed to the Premier and to the Ministry of National Defense, promised to send the following jet fighter planes and bombers:
 - a. 60 MIG jet planes, including armament and fuel. The USSR also promised to furnish pilots for these planes; these pilots are to remain permanently in Czechoslovakia.
 - b. 45 PE-2 twin-engine bombers.
 - c. 150 LAGG fighter planes.
2. All these planes are to be sold to Czechoslovakia on a compensation basis, and they will be delivered at the rate of three jet fighters and two bombers each shipment.
